Md. Abu Taher ED SUROVI delivering speech

Azizul Haque. Honorable Executive Director of SUROVI Md. Abu Taher welcomed all the Honorable guest and participants with sincere gratitude's for their participation and allocated valuable time. He also felt sorrow for inviting the participants within the short notice and subsequent inconvenience. Honorable ED told about the background history of establishment of SUROVI. He also mentioned that SUROVI was started its journey in 1979 by the Valiant philanthropist Syeda Iqbalmand Banu with a mission to Educate underprivileged children by the own funding. The partnership between SUROVI and CBMS has established based on the common mission and vision. We have mutual trust on each other and commitment to continue the partnership for the betterment and education of under privileged and orphan children. He also mentioned that we have covered huge district and sub districts where monitoring with tracking the student's progress is very important but due to lacking school/college/institutional monitoring support as well as shortage human resource with SUROVI tracking the student progress lagging behind. It would be fine to have local level (School/College) monitoring and cooperation for tracking progress of the students. He wishes sound health and safe return for the Orphan students and their family members, Donors/Guest from CBMS and the founder of SUROVI.

Distinguished special Guest Md. Yakub Ali Ex-High Commissioner of Bangladesh at Canada

Md. Yakub Ali Ex High Commissioner of Bangladesh delivering speech delivered speech in this occasion and expressed that we shall cover whole Manikgonj District gradually but other Districts also encourage to apply to secure maximum number of scholarship. He also said 65 number is an example to support orphan children to continue their education. With good intention we select students who are at risk based on vulnerability criteria to prevent dropout. Monitoring of dropout students is a big challenge for CBMS but locally it is possible by the respective educational institutions and teachers. SUROVI can maintain link with Teachers, Institutional head and individual student to get update on their progress. Some people can do something good for the orphan children said Md. Yakub Ali. He offered thanks to the SUROVI for organizing the nice event especially to ED and Chairperson for Supporting CBMS as a committed partner.

Honorable Chief Guest Md. Zamil Zaman- Vice President, Canada Bangladesh Muslim Society (CBMS) delivered speech in the event. He suggested student not to be dropped out in any situation. He said, we shall give you scholarship at college level. You are orphan but very strong to overcome the hindrance of your life. Orphan are loved very much by the Almighty Allah. Please take courage to show your strengths then almighty will help you. He mentioned that if SUROVI is a very good implementing partner and without their support CBMS couldn't help you. Selection process for this Scholarship is very impartial. So please apply first with all documents and information without keeping any question blank. We will give Bangla Format next for easy understand fill it up by the applicant as well as send us soon. Speech by Specials Guest: Md. Ahmed Pintu Volunteer, CBMS Thanks SUROVI for establishing good trustful relationship and nice environment here today. He also thanks CBMS for providing scholarship to the orphan children who really benefited.
